VISION

"Empowering Victoria's Circular Energy Future through Bioenergy and the Bioeconomy"

The Victorian Bioenergy Networks seeks to support Economic Development, Decarbonisation and a Circular Economy through increasing the role of bioenergy production within Victoria's energy mix by supporting alignment with industry, government and the community. We envision a future where organic waste is transformed into valuable resources, energy needs are met with environmental harmony, and economic growth is intertwined with environmental regeneration.

From Start up to Maturity

Start-up Phase

The next 12 months mark our intensive start-up phase, where we lay the foundation for the Victorian Bioenergy Network (VBN). It's a period of inception, with passion and vision driving our efforts to establish a strong presence in the bioenergy sector.

Growth Phase

Over the subsequent 24 months, we enter our growth phase, a stage of rapid expansion and development. This period is marked by the scaling of our network, attracting key stakeholders, advocating for clear policy and fostering innovation within the bioenergy industry.

Mature Phase

As we move into the third phase, our final 24 months, the VBN reaches maturity. Our influence and impact in the bioenergy sector are at their peak. We've become a recognized and influential organization, successfully achieving our mission to elevate the profile of bioenergy in Victoria, bringing about a cleaner and greener future.
